CAUTION – ARMED AND DANGEROUS

On June 17, 2009, it is alleged that Antonio Gilbert and two co-defendants robbed and attacked a convenience store owner in Aynor, South Carolina. During the course of the robbery, the attackers stabbed the owner multiple times and gouged one of his eyes out with a knife. After the robbery and brutal stabbing the attackers bound the store owner and left him for dead. Antonio Gilbert was later identified as the leader of this violent crime.

Antonio Gilbert remains at large and is considered armed and dangerous. South Carolina law enforcement has identified this subject as a member of DEF ROW. This group claims affiliation with the violent BLOODS street gang. Points of contact for this investigation are CI-DUSM Stewart Cottingham of the United States Marshals Service at 843-662-0750(24 hours) and Detective Todd Cox of the Horry County Police Department at 843-915-5350.
